PEARY'S STATEMENT

TESTIMONY GIVEN BY ESKIMOS REGARDING COOK'S TRIP.

They Say It Was Impossible for Him to Reach the Pole.

Cook's Claim to Have Reached the Pole Combated by the Eskimos Who Accompanied Him.

New York, October 12.—The following statement of Commander Robert E. Peary, which he submitted, together with the accompanying map, to the Peary Arctic Club in support of his contention that Dr. Cook did not reach the North Pole, is now made public for the first time. The statement and map have been copyrighted by the Peary Arctic Club.

(Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1909, by the Peary Arctic Club, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.)

INTRODUCTION BY PEARY

Some of my reasons for saying that Dr. Cook did not go to the North Pole will be understood by those who read the following statements of the two Eskimos who went with him, and who told me and others of my party where he did go. Several Eskimos who started with Dr. Cook from Anorok in February 1908, were at Etah when I arrived there in August 1908. They told me that Dr. Cook had with him, after they left, two Eskimos boys or young men, two sledges and some twenty dogs. The boys were I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pe-lah. I had known them from their childhood. One was about eighteen and the other about nineteen years of age.

On my return from Cape Sheridan and at the very first settlement I touched (Neeke near Cape Chalon) in August, 1908, and nine days before reaching Etah, the Eskimos told me, in a general way, where Dr. Cook had been; that he had wintered in Jones Sound and that he had told the white men at Etah when I arrived there in August 1908, that he had been a long way north, but that the boys who were with him, I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pe-lah, said this was not so. The Eskimos laughed at Dr. Cook's story. On reaching Etah, I talked with the Eskimos there and with the two boys and asked them to describe Dr. Cook's journey to the members of my party and myself. This they did in the manner stated below.

(Signed) R. E. Peary
Signed Statement of Peary, Bartlett, McMillan, Hornum and Henson in regard to testimony of Cook's two Eskimo boys.

The two Eskimo boys, I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pe-lah, who accompanied Dr. Cook while he was away from Anorok in 1908 and 1909, were questioned separately and independently, and were corroborated by Panikpah, the father of one of them (I-took-a-shoo), who was personally familiar with the first third and the last third of their journey, and who said that the route for the remaining third, as shown by them, was as described to him by his son after his return with Dr. Cook.

Notes of their statements were taken by several of us, and no one of us has any doubt that they told the truth. Their testimony was unshaken by cross examination, was corroborated by other men in the tribe, and was elicited neither by threats nor promises. The two boys and their father talking of their journey and their experiences the same way that they would talk of any hunting trip.

To go more into details, one of the boys was called to the table before him, was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, pointing out with his finger on the map, but not making any marks upon it.

As we were out the other boy came in and was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, also without making any marks, and indicated the same route and the same details as did the first boy.

When he was through, Panikpah, the father of I-took-a-shoo, a very intelligent man, who was in the party of Eskimos that came back from Dr. Cook from the northern end of Nansen Strait, who is familiar as a hunter with the Jones Sound region, and who has been in Commander Peary's various expeditions for the last fifteen years, came in and indicated the same localities and details as the two boys.

Then the first boy was brought in again, and with a pencil he traced on the map their route, members of our party writing upon the chart where, according to the boy's statement, they had killed dogs, seen some of their dogs, seal, walrus and musk-oxen.

The second boy was then called in and the two went over the chart together; the second boy suggested some changes as noted hereafter by Commander Peary to some of us, and were not taken by Commander Peary as the Eskimo boys have two or three small questions as to minor points that had occurred in him.

Certain questions on independent lines from the direct narrative of the Eskimo boys were suggested by Commander Peary to some of us, and were not taken by Commander Peary as the Eskimo boys have two or three small questions as to minor points that had occurred in him.

COUNT EVENED UP BY DETROIT

TIGERS DEFEATED PIRATES YES, TUESDAY 5 TO 0.

American Leaguers Outclassed Their Rivals in All Parts of Game—Pitching of Mullin Was Feature—Story of Game.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 12.—Detroit defeated Pittsburgh 5 to 0 today and evened up the count in the world's championship series, each now having two victories. The temperature was at 34 degrees, but 17,036 persons braved the freezing blasts and Detroiters, comprising a great majority of the spectators, felt well repaid.

The American league champions outclassed their rivals in every department of the game and the pitching of George Mullin was one of the features of the contest.

There was never a moment when Mullin was not absolute master of the situation and was at his best with men on bases. Four hits represented the ability of the visitors; no two of these were made in the same inning. Mullin performed a feat in the third inning that will live long in the annals of baseball. In the third inning he struck out the mighty Wagner, with two men out and men on second and third. That was a mighty feat, but just previously he had struck out Manager Clarke, a hard hitter, with men on first and second. A double steal on Clarke's third strike moved men to second and third, where they were when Wagner came to the bat.

Leifield was also a victim on strikes in this inning, giving Mullin three strikeouts in one session. All told he struck out the visitors ten times.

Detroit scored because it was able to hit when his spied runs. Savage, Jennings' young catcher, distinguished himself in the second inning by sending Detroit's first two runs across the plate with a drive just out of Mullin's reach. In the fourth inning Bush's ringing double in the left field scored another run and it was immediately followed by another two batters into the same place by Cobb. Outslugging by Detroit in the second and fourth innings drove Leifield, the Pittsburgh star left-hander, from the slab. He was succeeded by the veteran Philippi, who was able to stem the Detroit tide, although they pressed him hard in the eighth inning. Eight hits were made by the Detroiters and six of those came in two innings when scores were made. Only two were wasted.

Outside of Mullin, there were no stars on the Detroit team, but their ensemble work was brilliant. Every man did the right thing at the right time. Only one fielding slip marred the otherwise perfect performance. The cold apparently affected the Pittsburgh fielding far more than it did the Detroiters, as the National League champions put up a miserable exhibition in that department. Six errors were charged to the infield, Abstein, Miller and Philippi each getting two. The errors detract little credit from Detroit's performance, as only one of them figured in the scoring.

The conclusive victory of Detroit toppled Pittsburgh from the position as favorite in betting. Even money is now offered. The teams left for Pittsburgh tonight, where the fifth game will be played tomorrow. The sixth game is scheduled here Thursday.

Hans Wagner failed to star today. At bat he was helpless before Mullin. The first time up he drew a base on balls, but was forced out at third. In third inning saw his memorable strike out and in the sixth he sent a hot liner to Tom Jones. In the field he had two putouts and four assists, but most of them were easy. His best play came in the fourth inning, when he fumbled a grounder by Stange for a fraction of a second, recovered it quickly and touched second, forcing Tom Jones, then threw to first in time to double up Stange. If he had fumbled the grounder for an appreciable time longer, Detroit might have had many more runs, as three runs came after the double play.

Cobb made one hit—two a batter— and reached first once when he was hit by Leifield. The other two times the Georgia star tried to beat out bunts in front of the plate, but Gibson threw him out both times. In the field he had only one chance and accepted that gracefully.

Mullin's Good Work. So thoroughly did Mullin do his work that only six balls were hit to the outfield. Three of these were safe hits, the other three divided, two flies to Crawford and one to Cobb. After Pittsburgh was retired, one, two, three, in the first session, Wagner drew a base on balls in the second and Miller struck out. Deleahy then made the only errors for Detroit, when he fumbled Abstein's

TALK CAUSED HIS DOWNFALL

CRANE RESIGNS AT MINISTER TO CHINA.

Deposed by Demand of Secretary of State—Alleged Indiscreet Disclosures Through Press Said to Be Cause of Discharge.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Charles R. Crane of Chicago, minister designated to China, was today practically deposed by demand from Secretary Knox for his resignation. Thus a new chapter in American diplomacy is written. The minister was chosen with special regard for his qualifications, recalled before he was enroute and discharged because of alleged indiscreet disclosures through the press.

Moreover, this minister, breaking through all traditions, defended himself by the issuance of the statement which is commented upon as certain to be very embarrassing to the administration. The extraordinary incident began a week ago, when the minister designated Crane, who stopped at San Francisco, was ordered by Knox to return to Washington. To Mr. Crane announced Crane's resignation had been invited and the minister designated replied by stating while his resignation was already tendered to the president he felt himself very unjustly treated.

Crane denies giving out the newspaper said to be the cause of his removal. He said that he was the responsibility for Crane's utterances regarding oriental conditions, which have aroused Knox, and for final action upon his resignation. The public statement given out by Crane says:

"The statement issued by the department of state is slightly inaccurate in saying the secretary informed me my resignation would be accepted. The letter I received from the president to the president to accept my resignation. Before this letter was received I had already sent the president the following telegram:

"The state department objects to certain things I have done in an effort to carry out my understanding of your wishes as expressed by you. In my judgment no mistake has been made, except the department has made it a mistake. However, I did not and cannot guarantee to make no mistakes and especially unless I have the cordial support and cooperation of the government. The manner in which the department proceeded is inconsistent with my own self-respect and my conception of the dignity of the position and the understanding upon which I accepted it. I appreciate the personal consideration I received from you and under all circumstances have decided to await information as to your wishes before taking action. My resignation is in your hands. (Signed) Charles R. Crane."

"The statement of the department is further inaccurate in saying I gave out a newspaper story. I made preparation of a protest in regard to an agreement between China and Japan. It would have been accurate if the statement had said as indicated in its closing paragraph, that I was a discussion this agreement, and possibility of a protest by the government and that the department received this conversation indiscreetly. Publication in my judgment wouldn't have been a mistake if the department had not chosen to vouch for its accuracy and give it official significance."

It certainly contained nothing of a substance that was not a matter of common knowledge or deducible from facts commonly known. The agreement had been published and its content widely discussed.

"When I accepted the appointment the president expressed an earnest wish that the people be roused to a keen interest in the Pacific situation as he felt our greatest problem lay there and that our people are not fully awake to its importance. The president advised me to accept all available invitations of public meetings and dinners. He said: 'I want you to be a public speaker, but have done my best to carry out the president's wishes.'"

"The difficulty was increased by the absence of specific instructions from the state department and of any adequate discussion with its officials as to the policy of this government."

"With the approval of the president I had arranged to go to China via Europe, have conferences with well informed persons of widely divergent interests and had made many valuable appointments. Knox suggested it would be better for me to proceed by the Pacific. Mr. Underhill was this should be discussed with the president, but the secretary said it was unnecessary to see the president."

"I was told letters would be given me and arrangements made for seeing important persons in Japan. I have not seen Knox except last Sunday, nor had any adequate discussion with the department as to policy. Before departure I came to Washington and with difficulty made a number of appointments with the first assistant secretary of state, none on which he kept. Even my official credentials were not ready when I left Washington."

"As I was hurriedly leaving Washington a representative of an important paper asked me about the China-Japan agreement. I said the matter was under consideration, which was well known, but do not recall whether I advised him to get thoroughly informed upon the subject as it would

New York, Oct. 12.—A fresh chapter in Governor Hughes' anti-race track gambling crusade resulted today in twelve arrests at Jamaica track. A squad of mounted police and a small army of detectives, between the second and third races, when laying odds was in full blast, swooped down unexpectedly on the betting ring and gathered in a dozen several of whom were bookmakers and began search for evidence. Prominently among the ring was William G. Quinn, Patrick McMahon, Floyd Roger, Thomas J. Shaw, George Rodeman, Charles Cohen, George Rose, John Collins, William Atkinson and William Shaw of New York. They were arraigned and bail accepted for all.

ISSUE FRAUD ORDER

John and Kate Braun Placed on "Undesirable" List by Post Office Department.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The post office department, upon allegations in the report of its inspectors issued a "fraud order" against John F. Braun and Kate A. Braun, constituting the "Braun health institute" of Bloomington, Ill., and Moho Herb Remedy company and Manhattan Collection agency of Bloomington, Ill., Indianapolis, and Greenfield, Ind.

Persons suffering from any conceivable disease were advised by circulars sent through the mails they would certainly be cured by Braun's thorough use of "medicopathy" and teleopathy. Braun's charge was $5 a month for two "absent treatments" daily.

Receipts of various institutions conducted by the Brauns were discovered by inspectors to be large, as much as $100 a day being received in money orders at Bloomington alone. The inspectors' report alleged Braun was indicted by an Illinois grand jury for fraud in the conduct of his business and that he is now a fugitive.

CANNOT BE TAKEN TO WASHINGTON

VICTORY FOR INDIANAPOLIS NEWS-PAPER MEN.

Judge Anderson Dismisses Proceedings Against Smith and Williams—Accused by ex-President Roosevelt of Publishing Libelous Article.

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.—Federal Judge Anderson today dismissed the proceedings against Delavan Smith and Charles Williams, proprietors of the Indianapolis News, who were resisting removal to Washington for trial on charges of criminal libel in publishing articles, alleging there was a corrupt profit of $28,000,000 in the sale of the Panama canal to the United States.

"That man has read the history of our institutions to little purpose," said Anderson, in a conclusion, "who does not view with apprehension a proceeding which will permit citizens to be dragged from their homes to the seat of government for trial on charges of criminal libel. The defendants are discharged."

"I am of the opinion," said Anderson, "that the fact that certain persons are called thieves and swindlers does constitute libel. The former president said: 'It is the duty of a newspaper to print news and tell the truth about it.' It is the duty of a newspaper to draw inferences from the people." The court reviewed what it called "many peculiar circumstances about the whole Panama canal business" and added:

"A number of people thought there was something not just exact right about that transaction, and I am of the opinion that a newspaper has a duty to print news and tell the truth about it. It is the duty of a newspaper to draw inferences from the people." The court reviewed what it called "many peculiar circumstances about the whole Panama canal business" and added:

BIG COON HUNT AND CEREMONIAL

D. O. K. K's Plan For Live, Pleading Events and Members Are Promised a Royal Treat.

On Thursday, Oct. 28, the Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan will hold their annual coon hunt. At the meeting Monday evening the locality of the hunt was not decided upon, but a committee will be appointed next Monday evening, who will decide upon some convenient spot in the vicinity of the city. The order has also decided to have a pig roast in connection with the coon hunt. Apples, elder, etc., will also be in order and all attending are assured of a good time.

At the meeting the organization also decided to have a ceremonial which will take place Nov. 9. The committee on the parade has not been appointed yet, but elaborate arrangements will certainly be made, as this is the first celebration of its kind the order has had for several years. After the parade there is to be a banquet and an entertainment in which some of the big guns of the lodge will participate. A goodly number of out of town members are expected to attend and the celebration will be held in true D. O. K. K. style.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Representative labor, representing many ports of this country and Canada, paid tribute tonight to President Gompers on his arrival home after several months in Europe. It was probably the most enthusiastic demonstration ever accorded an American labor leader. There was a monster parade and mass meeting in convention hall. It is estimated the number of men and women marchers was 20,000. Owing to protest the district militia company was not allowed to march in the parade.

WATER COMPANY READY WITH SUPPLY

Communication Sent to Mayor Bancroft on the Subject—Company Expresses Willingness to Meet Council for Conference.

A communication was received yesterday by Mayor Bancroft from the Jacksonville Water Works company, stating that the company is now ready to furnish the city with water. The mayor sent a copy of the letter to each of the city aldermen. The letter reads as follows:

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois:

Gentlemen—

On behalf of the Jacksonville Water Works company, I respectfully call your attention to the fact that said company is now ready and willing to furnish the city with all the pure water it and its citizens may require, in accordance with the terms of the ordinance of the city on that subject.

We stand ready to meet the council, or a committee thereof, in conference upon any subject as to which they desire information.

Yours respectfully,

J. P. Riesenman,
Chairman.

Jacksonville, Ill., July 19, 1909. I am a farmer and was suffering with acute kidney trouble, could not get up or down for rheumatic pains in back and hips. I bought a bottle of HALLO TEXAS WONDER of J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store, and after taking 1/2 bottle could get up or down, and in and out of wagon without any trouble. I fully recommend it.

From here they then went south-west along the northwest coast of Heiberg Land to a point indicated on the map (Sverdrup's Cape Northwest).

From here they went west across the ice, which was level and covered with snow, offering good going, to a low island which they had seen from the shore of Heiberg Land at Cape Northwest. On this island they camped for one sleep.

The size and position of this island, as drawn by the first boy, was criticized by the second boy as being too large and too far to the west.

The second boy calling the attention of the first to the fact that the position of the island was more nearly in line with the point where they had left Heiberg Land (Cape Northwest) and the channel between Amund Ringnes Land and Ellers Ringnes Land.

This criticism and correction was accepted by the first boy, who started to change the position of the island, but was stopped as Commander Peary had given instructions that no changes or erasures were to be made in the maps as drawn by the Eskimos on the chart.

From this island they could see two lands beyond (Sverdrup's Ellers Ringnes and Amund Ringnes Lands). From the island they journeyed toward to left hand one of these lands (Amund Ringnes Land), passing a small island which they did not visit. Arriving at the shore of Amund Ringnes Land, the Eskimos killed a hare as indicated on the chart.

The above italicized portion of the statement of the Eskimo boys covers the period of time in which Dr. Cook claims to have gone to the Pole and back, and the entire time during which he could possibly have made any attempts to go to it.

The answers of the Eskimo boys to Commander Peary's series of independent questions, showing that they killed no game, made no caches, lost no dogs, and returned to the land with loaded sledges, makes their attainment of the Pole on the trip north of Cape Thomas Hubbard a physical and mathematical impossibility, as it would demand the subsistence of three men and over twenty dogs during a journey of ten hundred and forty geographical miles on less than two sledge loads of supplies.

If it is suggested that perhaps Dr. Cook got mixed and that he reached the Pole, or thought he did, between the time of leaving the northwest coast of Heiberg Land at Cape Northwest, and his arrival at Ringnes Land, we must then add to the date of Dr. Cook's letter dated March 17th, at or near Cape Thomas Hubbard, the subsequent four or five sleeps, at that point, and the number of days required to march from Cape Thomas Hubbard to Cape Northwest (a distance of some sixty nautical miles), which would advance his date of departure from the land to at least the 25th of March, and be prepared to answer the claim that Dr. Cook went from Cape Northwest (about 101° 20' north and 10° 15' west) to the Pole, a distance of five hundred and seventy geographical miles, in twenty seven days.

After killing the deer they then traveled south along the east side of Ringnes Land to a point indicated on the chart, where they killed another deer. They then went east across the south part of Crown Prince Gustav Sea to the south end of Heiberg Land, then down through Norwegian Bay, then through some bays but not until after they had killed some of their dogs, to the east side of Graham Island, then eastward to the little bay marked "Eld's Fiord" on Sverdrup's chart, then southward to Heiberg's Gate and Simmon's Peninsula.

Here for the first time during the entire journey, except as already noted off Cape Thomas Hubbard, they encountered open water. On this point the boys were clear and emphatic, and unshakable. They spent a good deal of time in this region and finally abandoned their dogs and one sledge, took to their boat, crossed Heiberg's Gate to North Kent, up into Norfolk Inlet, then back along the north coast of Collin Archer Peninsula to Cape Vera, where they obtained fresh elder duck eggs. Here they cut the remaining sledge off, and as it was awkward to transport with the boat, and near here they killed a walrus.

The statement in regard to the fresh elder duck eggs permits the approximate determination of the date at this time of about the first of July. This statement also serves to indicate anything more than the inherent straightforwardness and detail of their narrative were needed to substantiate the accuracy and truthfulness of the boys' statement. This locality of Cape Vera is mentioned in Sverdrup's narrative as the place where during his stay in that region he obtained elder duck eggs. From Cape Vera they went down into the sea west, angle of four Sound, where they killed a seal; thence east along the south coast of the Sound, killing three bears at the point noted on the map, to the peninsula on the map known as Cape Sparbo, on the map about midway on the south side of Jones Sound. Here they killed some walrus and seal, and continuing east, killed four more at the place indicated on the chart, and were finally stopped by the pack ice at the mouth of Jones Sound. From here they turned back to Cape Sparbo, where they wintered and killed many musk-oxen.

After the sun returned in 1909 they started, pushing their sledges, across Jones Sound to Cape Young; thence along the coast to Clarence Head (passing inside of two small islands not shown on the chart, but drawn on it by the boys), where they killed a bear; thence across the broad light in the coast to Cadogan Fiord; thence around to Cape Isabella and up to Commander Peary's old house in Payer Harbor near Cape Sabine, where they found a seal, which they killed. From here they crossed Smith Sound on the ice, arriving at Andrakok.

COOK NOT WORRIED.
Says Peary's Statement Is the Same Old Story.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 12.—"It is the same old story," said Cook, when shown Peary's statement, with a map accompanying it. "I have replied to the points raised a dozen times. The map itself indicates the Eskimos respected their promise made to me. The Eskimos were instructed not to tell Peary or any of his party of our trip over the Polar sea. They were told to say we had been far north. They kept their word."

Whitney has said that during the cross examination conducted by Peary and others, the Eskimos did not understand the questions of map. Their replies were twisted to suit perverted interest. I am not going into argument, but will bring the Eskimos to New York at my expense and they will prove, as did Whitney, all I have claimed."

A confident smile blitted over Cook's face when shown the accusations. He said: "Rasmussen, who will be here shortly, knows the real story. The Eskimos did not try to deceive him. He was with them fourteen days. They told him everything. He speaks Eskimo, is a semi-Eskimo himself and the people have complete confidence in him."

RACES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Oct. 12.—Ponies Maid scored a straight heat victory in the Walnut Hill Farm cup race for 2:15 trotters this afternoon. In the third heat she lasted barely long enough to get her name in front of Margie. Favorites were defeated in the other two races. Ella Ambulator was choice for the 2:08 pace. She won the second heat by a nose from Germinde, but he came under the scaffold driving of Geers, out trotted and outgained her in the other heats. Lady Stately, favorite in the 2:18 trot, could not get to Melva J.

Danville, Va., Oct. 12.—With the state and bars floating from business buildings and from residences throughout the city, Danville extended a hearty welcome today to the Confederate veterans, their friends and families gathered here for the twenty-second annual meeting of the grand camp. WATER SUPPLY AT MORGAN LAKE

Registration Shows 21 Inches Less Tuesday Than on Saturday—Water All East of Bridge.

The water situation in Jacksonville is becoming more serious with the passing of each day and the end of the supply at Morgan lake is almost in sight, unless there is a downfall of rain. The rain of Sunday and Monday was not of sufficient quantity to increase the supply and there will have to be a considerable change in conditions. The supply at Morgan lake as shown by measurements taken yesterday afternoon is 21 inches lower than was true Saturday afternoon. The record being made at the intake. The valve which releases the water from the lake to run to the pumping station is open as wide as it can be and still it is possible to pump only under sixty-nine pounds of pressure, whereas the normal pressure used is seventy-five pounds. During the past few days the Inland Hospital has been taking on water and while this process is going on it is impossible under present conditions for the reservoir south of the Bear and Humboldt to be kept full. The aim is of course to keep this reservoir full as a matter of fire protection and for the added pressure given, but yesterday it had been lowered twenty-one and one-half inches, and on Sunday recently it was down fifty-six inches. Today Central Hospital will be disconnected and a strenuous effort will be made to get the reservoir full again.

Referring again to Morgan lake, all of the water stored there is now out of the wagon bridge. The exact quantity of water still there cannot be computed with absolute definiteness because the depth varies greatly at different points. Conditions at the lake are being noted carefully each day by city officials and the public will be kept informed as to exact conditions.

I am now showing a full line of velvet and heavier hats. Mrs. M. P. Marsh, 1042 Grove street.

Colored Lad Under Arrest For Alleged Theft at 10c Store.

Monday afternoon a lady who was shopping in Woolworth's 5 and 10c store missed her purse and accused two colored boys, who were in the store at the time, of taking it. The boys were escorted to the police station and when searched quite a number of postal cards were found on their person, but they did not have the pocketbook in question. The boys said that they had purchased the cards at the 10c store, but when taken there the manager claimed that they did not buy them. As a result one of the boys, named Willie Johnson, was arrested Tuesday on a warrant sworn out by John P. Hoffman, manager of the store, charging him with larceny. As yet no warrant has been issued for the arrest of the other boy.

THE WATER QUESTION

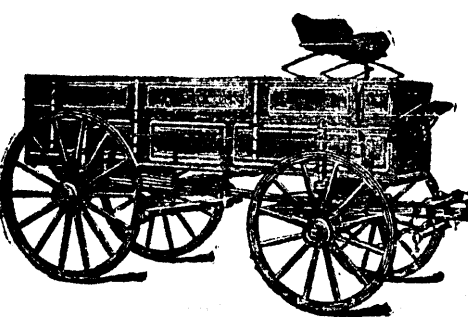

If every home, every store, every church and every school house had, its own chemical fire protection, as they have their own drinking water and wash water, the present draught and fire menace would not be half so serious. The only reason it is not so lies in the fact that people have not carefully considered it. A fire extinguisher, two of them will not cost as much as a well or a cistern. They are always ready for instant use; and with one of them, ready to use when the fire is first discovered, a woman can put out a fire that the Department could not handle after it had made the run necessary to get there.

You will never need it worse than you need it today. Better phone for an extinguisher while you are thinking about it.

MINISTER TO LEAVE

Rev. S. W. Batchlar of Second Baptist Church Will Give up His Work—Membership Asked For Resignation.

At a meeting of the membership of the Second Colored Baptist church held Monday night, it was determined to ask for the resignation of the pastor, Rev. S. W. Batchlar, who has served the church the past year. There were thirty or more members present and by vote they decided that the relations between them and their pastor should cease in one month. Mr. Batchlar came to this city to take up his ministerial work from Iowa and he states that during his ministry the membership has grown from sixty to more than one hundred. He claims also that it was agreed that he should be given three months notice in place of one, if the membership desired a change, and maintains that a few members of the church have stirred up all the trouble because he did not agree with them in all of their plans about the new church and the finances of the same. Some members of the church, however, claim that Mr. Batchlar is to be released because he was not meeting their expectations in the matter of the upbuilding of the church. At any rate the affairs of the church are not in an entirely harmonious state.

ODD FELLOWS HAVE BIG DAY

Meeting of District Association at White Hall Proves Big Success—Jacksonville Men Elected to Office.

There were about 115 members of the local I. O. O. F. left on the 4 o'clock Alton Train to attend the third annual district meeting of the association held at White Hall. The city was beautifully decorated and brilliantly illuminated with numerous electric lights. There were about 700 members of the lodge present and those combined with the crowd of onlookers formed a happy and noisy procession. At the afternoon meeting, which was presided over by Grand Master Groves of Petersburg, the following officers were elected:

Thomas Hall of Jacksonville lodge No. 4, president.
Al Stewart of Franklin lodge No. 1, vice president.
Charles Seymour of Jacksonville lodge No. 243, secretary and treasurer.

At 7 o'clock a banquet was formed which was headed by the Orphans' Home band of Lincoln, who were followed by a long line of enthusiastic Odd Fellows. About ten candidates were conferred the three initiative degrees, the first degree was handled by the Carrollton lodge, the second by the degree team of Jacksonville lodge No. 243, and the third by teams composed by members from different towns. All voted the affair a grand success and wished for many more meetings.

The play is a melodrama of five acts and all the characters were well adapted to the theme of the production. The specialties were well applauded and appreciated by all who witnessed them. The popularity contest is quite a feature and a large number of votes were cast. The bill for the night will be "A Son of Toil," a comedy drama in three acts.

REVIVAL OPENS CENTENARY CHURCH

Large Audience Grooms Evangelist Tiltman Hobson on Initial Service, Who Preaches Forceful Sermon.

The first of the meetings of the revival services was held at Centenary M. E. church Tuesday evening and despite the bitter cold weather, was attended by a goodly number. Rev. Tiltman Hobson is in charge of the meetings and is assisted by Fred Davis, who has charge of the choir and music.

The meeting was opened by Rev. P. A. McCarty, in a short address, and was followed by Dr. Hobson, who took for his text, Romans 1-16. "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ." "In these meetings," says Dr. Hobson, "I want everyone to come and go as they please; do not be afraid of coming late, as many business men cannot come in time for the opening of the services. The devil has many different tricks to discourage you and to prevent us from holding these meetings but I am determined he shall not stop this one. I am also glad to learn the lights burn here all night, as I think a night of prayer and meditation with the soul will help us all."

"This is not a Billy Sunday meeting as his are a union meeting of all the denominations and this is a meeting of only a fraction, but we are always glad to see all the denominations represented and all will be welcome. A business man does not go around and apologize for his business if he does he is not a success, and the same must be so with the church—if we are ashamed to own our faith in Jesus Christ we will never be soul winners. I am not particular as to dress, business or politics. I leave that to your own common sense. I have but one hobby and that is, 'Salvation to Jesus Christ.' The gospel of Jesus Christ is practical and we must set aside the ordinary routine of the church work and take up some special line in the walks of life. The church is a place of soul winning and we must not be ashamed to admit it; if we believe in a thing let us have enough Americanism to say so. Tomorrow I will have my banner up reading, 'A Square Deal and Get Right With God.' How many in the audience have been asked to become a Christian? I see quite a number of hands; you must return the compliment to be square."

"I am glad to see that the interest of the church is more closely connected with the interest of business every day, and more business men are becoming members of our congregations. I am so glad to hear the church has a Men's Bible class. I want to meet them some day and show them some of the ways the classes in other cities are carrying on their work. I want all the organizations of the church from the juvenile department up to be out winning souls. Some are qualified for some special line of work, others are better in the home work, but we can all do well and reap large harvests if we are not ashamed of our faith in the Lord. If your soul is clean you will be a soul winner and a success. Paul at first looked upon Jesus Christ as an outlaw, but was given the rays of light and became a close ally of Jesus. A fact can fill any minor vocation, but it takes a brainy man to be a true gentleman. We will find no trouble in winning souls if we go at it in a practical way. In Seattle 20,000 people paraded the streets singing hymns and shouting salvation and the people trembled and said they did not know what Christianity meant. Take away Christianity and we will soon drift back to the primeval ages, the residences of the but, the floges, the residences of the but, the dress of goat skin and the barbarous manners of the antediluvian period. We have men and women who have finery and all the luxuries of life and are not thankful. That is an insult to virtue, life and to the people of a great nation. Go back if we must to the goat skins and simple livelihood to find God, but we don't have to. It takes grit and courage to overcome the powers of sin. I understand there is a coming campaign on local option. Men, I pray you not to sleep, but be awake to the evil which will surely envelope you if you do not fight as never before. Never mind your politics, but vote for your family, children and the saving of your beautiful city. I have not had a chance to inquire into the coming election, but I expect the same old political tricks will be played on this community as I have seen in other places."

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

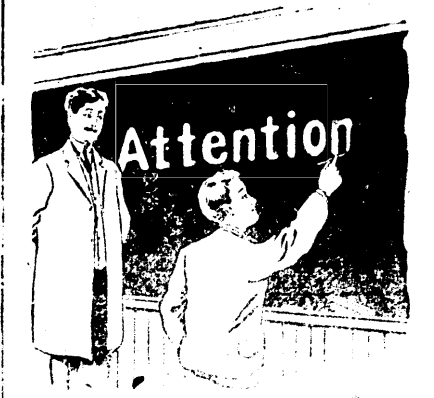

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MISS OGRAM AN OCTOBER BRIDE

Becomes the Wife of Homer H. Potter at Beautiful Home Wedding Last Night—Was Also Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary of Parents of Bride.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Ogram on West Lafayette avenue was the scene of a beautiful home wedding Tuesday evening when their only daughter, Miss Bertha, became the wife of Mr. Homer H. Potter, a prominent young man of this city.

The event also marked the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, which fact made it all the more pleasing and impressive. It was perhaps one of the most delightful nuptial events of the season.

The home was tastefully decorated in a color scheme of pink and white. Smilax, chrysanthemums and oak leaves were used in great profusion and the rooms presented a most charming appearance. In the parlor where the ceremony was performed was a handsome canopy adorned with autumn leaves and smilax. The dates 1884 and 1909 were represented by the use of leaves and stood out very prominently on both sides of the day and the month, Oct. 12, which was also portrayed in the same manner. Beneath the canopy at the rear were the letters P. and O. Streamers of pink and white were swung from the middle of the ceiling to the corners and bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums were also used in the decoration.

Here the ceremony was performed in the presence of 200 friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

A splendid musical program preceded the ceremony and promptly at 7:30 o'clock Miss Mabel Wilson of Virginia began the numbers with a piano selection from Chopin entitled, "Maiden's Wish," which was followed in order by the following numbers:

Vocal solo—The Proposal; Salter.

"Twas April; Nevin—Miss Eloise Smith.

Trio—Oh Promise Me. String and piano.

Vocal solo Greetings; Hanley—Mrs. Percy Jenkinson.

Vocal solo, Calm as the Night; Boan.

Perfect Love; Burleigh—Mrs. Robert L. Stice.

Instrumental, Swan Song from Lohengrin—Miss Wilson.

At this point the wedding party entered. First came the ribbon bearers, Maurice Patton, Florence Short, Edna and Ruth Hackett, Leonard Potter and Maimie Kennedy, who were dressed in white and carried the pink and white streamers. Following these were the bridesmaids, composed of Misses Catherine Rogerson, Stella Shuff, Inez Huckleby and Mrs. Percy Jenkinson, who sang with effectiveness the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, being accompanied by Miss Wilson on the piano.

piano, Misses Hazel Glenn and Carrie Dunlap on the violin and Mr. Jensen on the cello. Next came the ringbearer, little Anna Louise Jordan, who was becomingly attired in a lovely creation of pink. Directly following her was the minister, Dr. J. R. Harker of the Woman's college. The contracting parties stood beneath the canopy which was purposely arranged and Dr. Harker, using the full ring ceremony, spoke the words which made them husband and wife.

Dr. J. C. Nate of Grace M. E. church then spoke of the fact that the day celebrated also the twenty-fifth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Ogram and furthermore said that the grandparents of the bride, who about five years ago celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, were present. He then spoke of the interest that members of these families had taken in the work of the church and the stand that they had always taken along the lines of right living and concluded his remarks with a fervent prayer.

The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of messaline silk, made of Irish lace and trimmed with baby Irish lace and heavy embroidery with ornaments of pearl.

During the remainder of the evening the following program of music was given:

Hearts and Flowers, strings and piano.

Vocal solo, A Birthday; Cowan.

Because; Hardelet—Miss Rogerson.

Vocal solo, Love's Springtime; Hammond—Mrs. Stice.

Serenade.

Barcarolle; Paché. Strings and piano.

Vocal solo, In a Garden; Hanley—Miss Eloise Smith.

Romanze, strings and piano.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served. The waiter and waitresses were all members of Miss Ogram's music classes from Murrayville, Chapin and this city, and were the following: Elita Wade, Lena Erickson, Ator Bruening, Marie Angelo Sylvia Poole, Anna Ommen, Lydia Tholen, Iona Brockhouse, May Smith, Edna Unken, Marie Corrington, Florence Watkins, Edwin Eckhoff, Mildred Wright, Glenn Howard, Mandell McDougall and Gladys Carroll. The matrons were Mrs. Mottie Brown Dinwiddle of Litchberry Mrs. Arthur Cody, Miss Beatrice Elliott of Decatur, Miss Mabel Cooper of Nilwood, Miss Amanda Rawlings. Mrs. D. E. Kennedy was the overseer.

The cutting of the bride's cake afforded a great deal of amusement. The ring was secured by Miss Cora Potter, the dime by Mr. Viggo Jensen and Miss Beatrice Elliott of Decatur drew the darning needle.

The bride is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Ogram and is a very accomplished young lady. She is a graduate of the Illinois Woman's college, being a member of the class of 1904. Most of her time has been devoted to music and she has successfully conducted classes at a number of the adjoining towns. She is a member of the Grace M. E. church and has always been prominent in church work.

The groom is one of Jacksonville's promising young business men, having been connected with the Farrell & Co. bank for the past five years and at present is a teller in this institution. Mr. Potter is the oldest son of Mrs. Eva Potter of South East street. He is a member of Grace M. E. church and is also affiliated with the order of Odd Fellows.

Both young people are known among a large circle of friends, who will wish for them every happiness. They expected to leave on the Chicago & Alton at 6 o'clock this morning for Eureka Springs, Ark., and other southern points, where they will spend two weeks or more, after which they will be at home to their friends at 1106 West Lafayette avenue.

Among the many guests present from out of the city were Rev. and Mrs. John Potter of Newton, Ia., Mrs. C. M. Adams of St. Louis, L. E. Kennedy of Wichita, Kan., Miss Beatrice Elliott of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fisher of Tallula, Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson of Virginia, Miss Mabel Ross of Philadelphia, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Short of Murrayville, Otto Klaus of Nilwood, Miss Mabel Cooper of Nilwood, S. H. Crum and family, Mrs. J. M. Litter and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McMillen, all of Litchberry.

STUDENTS' SOCIAL AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Initial Entertainment for Students by Local Churches Was Grand Success—Committees Did Excellent Work and Guests Were Loud in Praise of Welcome Accorded.

Tuesday evening in the parlors of the First Baptist church there was given a social in honor of the students of the city. About 300 students and friends were royally entertained by program and refreshments.

The affair was in charge of a general committee representing the organizations of the church, of which Mr. John Schofield, president of the Baptist Young People's union, was chairman. This committee was subdivided into committees to arrange for the different phases of the affair.

These committees with their chairman were as follows: Decorating—Elizabeth Long. Entertainment—Mabel Withee. Finance—Luther Smith. Advertising—Hazel Bell Long. Refreshments—Mrs. Stebbins. Reception—F. Mitchell Arnold.

All present were unanimous in declaring it to be one of the most enjoyable and thoroughly successful affairs of its kind. This was attained only by strenuous labor on the part of all the committees. The room was very artistically decorated with crepe paper and pennants of the different schools and schools of commerce.

The entertainment committee has labored for weeks and the excellent program of the evening was the result of their efforts. In this connection special mention is made of the features of the program. The first event was of a literary nature and served very acceptably as a mixer.

This was followed by what was known as the "Miscellaneous Quizzes," in which sixteen people from the audience, in four groups of four persons each rendered familiar tunes. This proved to be a source of much laughter and amusement.

SO MANY ranges are bought because they look well when standing on a dealer's floor. But looks never did a baking or help to lengthen the life of a range.

The Great Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Range

isn't the finest-looking range made, but it is made to last and do its work perfect.

CHARCOAL IRON isn't as good looking as polished steel, but it lasts three or four times as long.

MALLEABLE IRON isn't as smooth looking as cast iron, but it's a great many times stronger. In fact, you can't break Malleable Iron. That's why the MAJESTIC RANGE can be riveted together perfectly air-tight.

Fancy Cast Iron Nickel-plated Ornaments on a range don't improve its baking qualities or lengthen its life one particle; and, as you don't want a range for your parlor, don't you think it best to invest your money in A GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE, the range that has the QUALITY and not altogether the looks.

If you will call at our store we will show you that THE MAJESTIC IS ALL QUALITY.

"TO BE HAD EVERYWHERE"

RETURN FROM DELIGHTFUL TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gillham Home Again After Sojourn Through the Northwest—Mr. Gillham Attended National Funeral Directors' Convention at Portland, Ore.

After an absence from the city for five weeks, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gillham returned Tuesday, both looking well and happy. Mr. Gillham, at the state meeting of the undertakers at Peoria last June, was chosen as one of the Illinois delegates to the National Funeral Directors' Convention at Portland, Ore., and the convention together with the journey to the world's fair at Seattle, combined business with pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillham took the Canadian Pacific route and their first general stop was at the National park, where the resorts of Banff, Hot Springs, Laggan, Glacier were visited. Here the scenery was beyond comparison. The next stopping place was Seattle, where they were guests at the home of Mr. Gillham's sister and husband, Judge and Mrs. John B. Gordon. Judge Gordon has been in the west for the past nineteen years and has built up a prosperous business and is one of the leading citizens of Seattle. "The Seattle fair is not so large as that of St. Louis or Chicago world's fair," said Mr. Gillham, in speaking of it, but remarked "it was more compact and extremely beautiful, being situated overlooking the Sound and will eventually be an extension of the Washington university buildings. The floral display was especially noticeable."

The next place visited was Portland, where the national convention of funeral directors was held. There were over 2,000 delegates in attendance and the citizens of Portland were extremely courteous to their visitors. The convention program was excellent and part of the entertainment was a street car ride over the city to the ladies present and a delightful trip up the Columbia river to Hot Springs, a distance of perhaps sixty miles. At Hot Springs an elegant salmon dinner was served and during the trip going and returning, Oregon apples, grapes, pears and other native fruits were at the disposal of the excursionists.

The convention elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—G. W. Thomas, Milwaukee, Wis.

First vice president—Mr. Cookerle of Walla Walla, Wash.

Secretary—H. M. Kilpatrick, Elmwood, Ill. (Second term).

Treasurer—Charles Miller, Cincinnati, O. (Second term).

Detroit Mich., was chosen as the meeting place for next year.

From Portland Mr. and Mrs. Gillham went to Salt Lake City, where the Utah state fair was in progress, also the Mormon conference. After visiting places of interest there they journeyed to Colorado Springs, Manitou, Denver and other Colorado points, on the way home.

Mr. Gillham is very enthusiastic over the northwestern country and was impressed with the advancement and spirit of its citizens and sees still greater possibilities for that portion of the United States. He believes that Seattle will be the Chicago of that section and was profoundly impressed with its wonderful facilities.

While the trip was one of unalloyed pleasure, both Mr. and Mrs. Gillham were glad to arrive back in Jacksonville and to feel again the happiness of greeting their many friends who are legion.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

In the absence of Judge Baldwin in Chicago Judge D. N. Walker of Cass county heard the evidence in an insane case Tuesday and committed W. B. Cowan of Hancock county to Central Insane Hospital. He had been a patient at the Norbury Sanatorium for a short time. Judge Walker also restored to citizenship Mrs. Laura Campbell, who was recently adjudged insane, but was not committed to the hospital. Since that time Mrs. Campbell has been at the Norbury sanatorium.

VISITORS FROM CALIFORNIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Storey of Los Angeles, Calif., have arrived in Morgan county for a visit of several weeks with relatives. They are soon to be guests at the home of Joseph Fanning, south of the city, where a family reunion is soon to be held. Mr. and Mrs. Storey are prospering in their western home, but are nevertheless glad to be in Illinois again.

GO TO CALIFORNIA.

Tomorrow a long time citizen and wife expect to leave for southern California to reside. They are G. W. Riley and wife, formerly grocers on South Diamond street. Mrs. Riley has two daughters living out there now and has two others in this state, who expect to follow her. The Journal wishes Mr. and Mrs. Riley all success in their new home.

WABASH STATION DESTROYED.

Flames Consume Wooden Structure at Griggsville, Ill.

The Wabash station at Griggsville, a large one story wooden structure, was entirely destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. No night operator is maintained at this station and it is generally believed that sparks from a passing locomotive ignited the building. The fire was discovered by a freight train crew shortly before 4 o'clock but as the building was in flames it was impossible to save any of the contents. Records of the office, a small amount of express and other valuables were destroyed. The station is in a remote section and the local fire department could not render any assistance. Local officials state that the loss will amount to over $3,000. Plans are being made to replace the burned building with a fire proof structure.

Frank Tracy of Franklin was among the people in the city yesterday.

Consult Us About Your Painting

Before painting it is advisable to post yourself as thoroughly as possible on every phase of the subject. We help you do that.

The mischief caused by covering your house with an inferior paint is hard to undo. Poor material makes painting a bugbear instead of the joy of beautifying the home that it should be.

With our advice you need run no risk. A paint made of and pure linseed oil will give you that fine, smooth, tough film, elastic and yet so rooted into the wood fibre as to seem like a part of the wood itself.

Such a paint is as durable as it is beautiful, and leaves the best possible foundation for repainting.

Let us show you some good ideas for color, and estimate how much (Dutch Boy Painter trade mark) Southern White Lead your painting requires.
